

Lu Alone - Not The Right Day

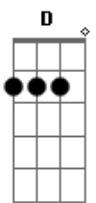

Tom: D

(com acordes na forma de Capotraste na 2ª casa C)
Intro: C G Am F Dm Am G

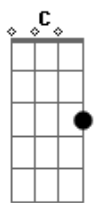

You're not the right guy
This is not the right place
It's not the right time
This is not the right day
I am just a stranger that entered your world
A girl from another town that nobody knows
I'm just a new girl that came to your school
That doesn't know anybody, but knows you
I know that you love me and my heart calls your name
But this is not the right time
This is not the right day
I'm going to pretend that I never knew you
That you aren't the guy I liked?
Cause you were so different
You've changed so much
I can't stay stuck on you
Like if you were the only guy in this world
The problem is I still love you

But this is not the right time
This is not the right day
You're not the right guy
This is not the right place
I am just a stranger that entered your world
A girl from another town that nobody knows
I'm just a new girl that came to your school
That doesn't know anybody, but knows you
I know that you love me and my heart calls your name
But this is not the right time
This is not the right day
This is not the right day
This is not the right day
We wanna be together
Forever, forever, forever...
(na próxima estrofe, tocar cada acorde, deixando soar)
But I'm just a new girl that came to your school
That doesn't know anybody, but knows you
I know that you love me and my heart calls your name
But this is not the right time
This is not the right day...
