

Lucas Mayer - Full Moon

Tom: A

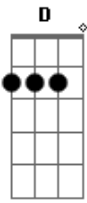

So shy she moves us
 Deep inside the woods
 While the whole world stares
 She blushes timidly
 It's the clouds that are blemishing her skin
 And blurring my sight

And when all I want is to watch her
 She finds a place to hide
 Full moon
 Wake me up when the sun goes down
 So foolish to miss a chance to be with you
 Wake me up when no one is around to see
 That I'll sitting here till you fall into the sea
