Intro: Em Bm D C

Travelling around the world I face a lot of Things, beauties of a secret I can't explain
Some buildings, places, people and even Millions worlds all in the same Earth never Seen before. Where wintry cold warms
Bodies under the blanket and warm summer
Becomes soul much more cooler once
Climbing the hill and going down surfing
Each new discovery here is a big door to open

[Refrão]

Run the world entirely taking new routes
Cause each way is funny unknown road
Having a light life is more than a satisfaction
It should be a fact and not a movie session
Like drama, horror or thriller. But yes
Adventure and comedy like a tv series
Season that never has a end
