

Lucas Trindade - Have I Told You

Tom: G

Intro: Eb7 Em7 Cm7 Ab

Have I told you? That I can't wait anymore
 Have I miss you? You realize how much love you can store?
 I would like to love you, but right now I just want you for me
 I just realize that your eyes are your sixth key

?Cause I love you, and I promise you
 I'll wait for you, no matter where you go
 ?Cause when I stop waiting, my words will be true
 But the only one, who can do that, is you

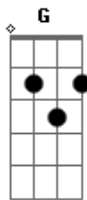

( Eb7 Em7 Cm7 Ab )

( Eb7 Em7 Cm7 Ab )

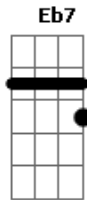

Have you heard, at least half of the things I've said to you?
 Do you remember, all the good times that we've been through?
 More of this? I don't really know if I should Sometimes you make me feel so bad, but your smile makes me feel so good

?Cause I love you, and I promise you
 I'll wait for you, no matter where you go
 ?Cause when I stop waiting, my words will be true
 But the only one, who can do that, is you
