

Lucy Dacus - Brando

tom:

A

[Primeira Parte]

You told me to skip school
 To go with you to the movies
 You knew you were uncool
 But you thought you could fool me
 They play oldies in the afternoon
 For the elderly and me and you
 Fred and Ginger, black and white
 I watch you watch "It's a Wonderful Life"

( A D A Gbm D )

[Segunda Parte]

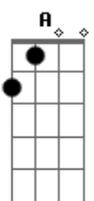

You called me "cerebral"
 I didn't know what you meant
 But now I do, would it have killed you
 To call me pretty instead?
 I'm in a second story window
 And you're yelling at me, "Stella!"
 And I'm laughing 'cause you think
 You're Brando
 But you'll never come close

[Refrão]

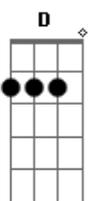

All I need for you to admit
 Is that you never knew me like you
 Thought you did
 You never knew me like you thought you
 Did
 Like you thought you did

( A Gbm D Bm )

[Terceira Parte]

You say, "Here's lookin' at you, kid"
 Thinking I wouldn't understand the Reference

You admit you think we're fated
 I'll be lucky if I'm your third wife
 That's only something you would say in
 The car
 We've been breathing the same air for
 Too long
 If the snow wasn't coming down so hard
 I would open the door and walk home

It's only a couple miles
 What could go wrong if I hitch a ride

With a guy in a pickup
 Who doesn't know left from right from Wrong?

[Refrão]

All I need for you to admit
 Is that you never knew me like you
 Thought you did
 You never knew me like you thought you
 Did

Like you thought you did
 All I need for you to admit
 Is that you never knew me like you
 Thought you did

You never knew me like you thought you
 Did

Like you thought you did
