

Lukr - Scarecrow

Tom: B

Intro: B E B Abm E

Cut me down from these roof beams
 Cause I've been swinging like a scarecrow
 Yeah, I've been living in a bad dream
 Forgive my name, forget my sins
 Remember dancing in the stairwell
 Remember getting high in brooklyn
 (B E B Abm E)
 I'm not completely naive, I knew that it was the end
 When I heard you crying on the back porch
 When I heard you're marrying your boyfriend
 You feel like heaven and hell and sometimes nothing at all
 But honestly I'm so much happier when you're not in my thoughts
 Cause I don't know, how to let you go

No, oh, oh, no, oh, oh
 Yeah I don't know, how to let you go
 I still don't, I still don't
 I still don't
 Remember when you were mine
 I was twenty, you were nineteen
 Mapping out the rest of our lives
 Should we have got married then?
 Have you forgotten my name?
 And tell me baby, have all the lips you kissed
 Since mine tasted or felt the same
 Cause I don't know, how to let you go
 I still don't, yeah, I still don't
 Yeah I don't know, how to let you go
 I still don't, I still don't
 I still don't
