

LWPLY - I Bought You a Book On Birds In San Francisco

tom:
 G
 I bought you a book on birds in San Francisco G C
 From a couple of older hippies of the bay G C
 D Cadd9
 It was late July
 D Cadd9
 Their summer of love
 D Cadd9 G
 Was a winter in La Plata and Hobart
 G
 Punchline for a joke
 C
 ?We melt apart in the snow, man!?
 G C
 But had I been there, this wouldn't change at all
 D
 ?Cause I was watching from the sides
 Cadd9 (Riff)
 Now I'm just trynna figure out
 D

If I had good memory then why would
 C G
 I write this all down?

G
 It was a long hot summer
 C
 In a late December party
 G D
 And you had a bunch of friends over from school
 G
 Your grandma was there too
 C
 She gave us cake, then she pushed us in the pool
 G D
 The taste of vegan appetisers lingered on
 G C
 You told your mother that I played guitar
 G C
 But I never had the chance to prove it because your
 D C G
 Sister's boyfriend was needing CPR
