

Lynnea M. - Let Go

tom:

Intro: F G Am Dm
 Sunrise, burning my eyes
 No tears are left to cry

Picking up the memories
 Lying there on the floor
 Happiness and tragedy

I just can't, anymore
 I guess I'll let you sleep
 Leave now, before I get weak

Cause I know you could change my mind
 Like you do every time
 But I gotta find a way
 To jump off this crazy ride

Boy, you made it so hard
 Boy, you made it so hard
 To say no

Boy, you made it so hard
 Boy, you made it so hard
 To let go. But I gotta let go

Softly, I close the door
 Find peace beyond this war

Now I've finally got my wings
 But I'm scared to fly
 For too long you held me down
 Now it's time to try

Boy, you made it so hard
 Boy, you made it so hard

To say no
 Boy, you made it so hard
 Boy, you made it so hard

To let go. But I gotta let go
 Ooh, you always said I'd never leave you
 That I would always need you, need you, need you
 Ooh, don't know if I can do it

But now I gotta prove it. I'm stronger alone

Boy, you made it so hard, Boy, you made it so hard to say no

To say no
 Boy, you made it so hard
 Boy, you made it so hard

To let go
 Boy, you made it so hard
 Boy, you made it so hard
 To let go. But I gotta let go
