

Lynyrd Skynyrd - You Got That Right

Tom: C

(intro)

I play it this way because it gives good tone, and fill. I have seen skynyrd play it at the 8th and 10th fret.

(intro lead riff - played with a slide, or with fingers)

b

(part 1) (bridge to verse)
(guitar 1)

(guitar 2) (slide)

0:14 (verse - I play the power chords. Recording plays some blues rock riffs on another track)

Well I heard lots of people say their gonna settle down.

You dont see their faces and they dont come around

Well Im not that way I got to move along

(bridge to chorus)

I like to drink and dance all night Comes to a fix not afraid to fight

0:33
(chorus)
(intro Chords over again)

You got that right!
Said You got that right!
sure got that right!

(part 1)
(back to verse progression again)

Seems so long I been out on my own
Travel light and I'm always alone

Guess I was born with a travellin' bone

(bridge to chorus)

When my times up, I'll hold my own
You won't find me in an old folks home

(chorus again)

(bidge to solo)
1:14

(guitar 2) (slide)

I tried everything in my life
Things I like I try 'em twice
You got that right

(first time I think first 4 notes are played in reverse of whats tabbed here)

You sure got that right!

(slide Solo goes here- I have not worked on that yet)

(back to verse)
Travellin' around the world, just singing my song
I got to go, Lord I can't stay long
Here comes that ol' travellin' jones once again
I like to drink and to dance all night
Comes to a fix not afraid to fight

(chorus)
You got that right
Said, you got that right
Well you got that right
Sure got that right

(song changes key for the finale. Solo over progression) (I Have not worked on it)

Drop thess notes on the ending (4th time).

(play 4x On the 4Th time play the ending)
