                                                               I don't do fake love
Intro: C G Em C G Em
                                                               But I'll take some from you tonight, yeah
Mm, okay
                                                               I know I've got to go
The simulation just went bad
                                                              But I might just miss the flight
But you're the best I ever had
                                                               I can't stay forever, let's play pretend
                                                                              Em
                                                               And treat this night like it'll happen again
Like handprints in wet cement
She touched me, it's permanent
                                                               You'll be my bloody valentine
                                                               ( C G Em )
In my head, in my head
                                                               (CGEmG)
I couldn't hear anything you said, but
                                                              I can't hide
In my head, in my head
                                                              How I feel about you inside
I'm callin' you girlfriend, what the fuck?
                                                               I'd give everything up tonight
I don't do fake love
                                                              If I could just have you, be mine
But I'll take some from you tonight, yeah
                                                              Be mine, baby
         G
I know I've got to go
                                                              I can't hide
      Fm
But I might just miss the flight
                                                              How I feel about you inside
I can't stay forever, let's play pretend
                                                              I'd give everything up tonight
              Fm
And treat this night like it'll happen again
                                                              If I could just have you
You'll be my bloody valentine
                                                              I can't stay forever, let's play pretend
                                                                              Fm
                                                              And treat this night like it'll happen again
I'm overstimulated and I'm sad
                                                              You'll be my bloody valentine
I don't expect you to understand
It's nothing less than true romance
                                                              Be mine tonight
Or am I just makin' a mess?
                                                              Na-na-no, na-na-no
                                                              Na-na-na-na-na-na just tonight
In my head, in my head
                                                              Na-na-na, na-na-na
                                                              Na-na-na-na-na-na just tonight
I'm lyin' naked with you, yeah
                                                              Na-na-na, na-na-na
                                                              Na-na-na-na-na-na just tonight
In my head, in my head
                                                              C G Em
                                                              In my head, in my head
```

I'm ready to die holding your hand
