           Am
                                                                   F Am G Em C G
If I?m always hopeless
                                                              If I?m so hopeless
Cause I can never say what?s on my mind
Am F
                                                                  Am F G C G
                                                              And you?re so hopeless
Then you?re just as hopeless
                                                                                         Am G Fm C G
                                                                   Am
                                                              Then we?re both hopeless, you know
                                C
For always speaking in between the lines
                                                               If I could find the perfect words somehow, here and now
I guess we?re both hopeless
                                                                           G
                                                              You know you could just say
We can never seem to get it right, but it?s fine
                                                              Oh-oh, oh-oh
I couldn?t care if its upside down, I love the sound
                                                              Oh-oh-oh-oh, oh-oh-oh
                                                              And again

Well, time?s been frozen from the moment you pulled me into
                                                              Oh-oh, oh-oh
Morning?s glow
                   F
                                      G
                                                              If I can hear I?ll be fine
A warmer summer breeze is blowing, whispering I?m not alone
                F
                                                               [Final] Am F
