

Madison Beer - Homesick

tom:
 G
 I always knew that you existed, no one listened
 How come when you drove by you ain't stop to visit?
 G Am
 My mom and dad said they first met under the moonlight
 Em
 I didn't buy their cover story, it didn't feel right
 G Am Em
 'Cause I belong in space, floating with debris
 Em C
 Something 'bout this place never did feel right to me
 Cm G
 Countin' the stars, they all felt so far
 B
 But it's always felt like home to me
 C
 What took you so long?
 Cm
 They thought that I was wrong
 G
 But now they'll all see
 F C
 They're all gonna see
 That's where I'm meant to be
 G F C
 Now they're all gonna see
 It's where I'm meant to be
 G Am Em
 And you're so lucky lookin' down on everybody
 Em
 Me, alone, and faking at this afterparty
 G Am Em
 These ain't my people, ain't my crew, it ain't my planet
 Em
 These humans speak my language, still don't understand it
 G Am Em
 I wish you took me with you when left that day

Em C
 And everything looks perfect when you're far away
 Cm G
 Em Countin' the stars, they all felt so far
 B
 But it's always felt like home to me
 C
 What took you so long?
 Cm
 They thought that I was wrong
 G
 But now they'll all see
 F C
 They're all gonna see
 That's where I'm meant to be
 G F C
 Now they're all gonna see
 It's where I'm meant to be
 ( G Am Em )
 ( G Am Em )
 C Cm G
 Countin' the stars, they all felt so far
 B
 But it's always felt like home to me
 C
 What took you so long?
 Cm
 They thought that I was wrong
 G
 But now they'll all see
 F C
 They're all gonna see
 That's where I'm meant to be
 G F C
 Now they're all gonna see
 It's where I'm meant to be

Acordes

