

Madison Beer - Stained Glass

G tom:

[Primeira Parte]

E
 Lately, I'm countin' the minutes that I've got left
 E
 And lately, I'm countin' the words that I haven't said
 Ab A
 'Cause you will never know what I been through Ab A
 And you should be a little more gentle
 [Segunda Parte]

E Dbm
 But maybe I need to start taking my own advice
 E Dbm
 'Cause my heart's so heavy, it's ready to fall out twice
 Ab A
 'Cause you will never know what I been through
 Ab A B
 So you should be a little more gentle with me
 [Refrão]

A B Ab Dbm
 My skin is made of glass, but apparently it's stained
 A B Ab Dbm
 'Cause you notice all the cracks, but can't look inside my pain
 A B Dbm B A Ab Gb Gbm
 Gb B
 And if you throw another stone then I'd stay far a--waaaay,
 far awaaaay
 I just might break

[Terceira Parte]

E Dbm
 My life is just a fadin' memory of one I can't have

Acordes

E Dbm
 And everythin' 'round me is starting to fade into black, mmm
 Ab A
 But black and white is so much better
 Ab A
 I'm learning how to hide my colors
 Ab A B
 You should've been a little more gentle with me [Refrão]
 A B Ab Dbm
 My skin is made of glass, but apparently it's stained
 A B Ab Dbm
 'Cause you notice all the cracks, but can't look inside my pain
 A B Dbm B A Ab Gb Gbm
 Gb B
 And if you throw another stone then I'd stay far a--waaaay,
 far awaaaay
 [Ponte]
 A
 I just might break, break
 E Ab
 Break, aaah
 A
 Hey, might break
 E Ab
 Might break, mmm
 [Refrão]
 A B Ab Dbm
 My skin is made of glass, but apparently it's stained
 A B Ab Dbm
 'Cause you notice all the cracks, but can't look inside my pain
 A B Dbm B A Ab Gb Gbm
 Gb B
 And if you throw another stone then I'd stay far a--waaaay,
 far awaaaay