Gm Cm Gm
 The choice was mine, and mine completely
 Eb F Cm
 I could've had any prize that I desired
 Gm Cm Gm Db
 I could've burnt with the splendor of the brightest fire
 Eb Gb Gm
 Or else, or else I could choose time
 Gm Cm Gm

Remember I was very young then
 Eb F Cm
 And a year was forever and a day
 Gm Cm Gm Db
 So what use could fifty, sixty, seventy be?
 Eb Gb Gm
 I saw the lights, and I was on my way
 Db
 And how I lived, how they shone
 Eb Gb Gm
 But how soon the lights were gone.
