Intro: Em Am D G Em Am D

G)

Primeira Parte:

Hey, baby, baby
Your heart's too big
To be treated small
So please don't blame me, blame me
For trying to be the one
Who could have it all
You know that it's stupid, stupid
Telling you it's dark
When you see the light
And I know you ain't foolish, foolish
Just give me one chance
I could treat you right
So I say

Refrão:

Will I ever be too far away
When you feel alone
No way, no
Will I ever back down my sword
To protect our home
No way, no
Will I ever spend a day not
Telling you you're beautiful
No way, no
No way, no way, no
No way, no way, no

Segunda Parte:

My sister, sister
Told me that love ever hits your eyes
I promise you'll miss her, miss her
The second that she walks
Right out your sight
So we should just do it
'Cause I don't want to risk

Her being right
Let's not be foolish
Don't you know that family never lies

I promise that

Refrão:

Will I ever be too far away
When you feel alone
No way, no
Will I ever back down my sword
To protect our home
No way, no
Will I ever spend a day not
Telling you you're beautiful
No way, no
No way, no way, no
No way, no way, no
(Em Am D G Em Am D)

Terceira Parte:

Hey, lady, lady
Life's too short to be waiting long
So let's not waste it, waste it
When we both know you're the one

Will I ever be too far away
When you feel alone
No way, no
Will I ever back down my sword
To protect our home
No way, no

Telling you you're beautiful
No way, no
No way, no way, no
No way, no way, no
