 And I been tryna make a big step forward
 G
 Saw you, it was awkward
 F
 Nothing like I thought would happen happened
 C
 I was so in love, and that don't come off in the wash
 Kinda hope it does, though

'Cause you're seeing someone pretty and I hate her guts
 G
 So I'll be telling you she's nice on the bus home

[Refrão]

C
 We were bad but we're gonna be good
 F
 It didn't work like I thought it would
 Am G
 And I resent you just a little if I'm honest
 F
 But one of us has gotta try to keep a promise
 C
 And I swore that I'd swallow my pride
 F
 And you swore you would do better this time
 Am G F
 Well I might be bitter and twisted and broken and petty and lying
 C
 But at least I'm trying
 C
 (At least I'm trying)
 At least I'm trying

[Segunda Parte]

C
 Three shots, lemon drops
 F
 One for being lost and alone in your early twenties
 Am
 One for being obsessed with someone who puts you secondary
 G
 One for calling guys with guitars in a cemetery
 Just me? Okay
 C
 If I'm being frank, I want a "sorry" but I'll settle for a handshake
 Am G
 'Cause I'm a baby but I'm gonna be the bigger man, babe
 F
 So many blank slates I could build a whole fucking house

[Refrão]

 Not friends
 No, we're somewhere in between
 F

Am
 'Cause you're awful and I miss you and I killed you in my dream last night
 G

Even then you didn't care
 F
 It's a low when even in my dreams you still don't want me there
 C
 Got friends, got at least a healthy five

Yeah, some people think I'm funny, baby, don't look so surprised (Some people think I'm funny!)
 Am G
 We think that your girlfriend is a bore
 F
 But we're nice to her in public cause we're grown up and mature
 C
 Not friends

'Cause when I asked you on the train why you hurt me and you couldn't really actually explain
 Am G
 I cried, then I told you it was cool
 F
 God, you haven't changed at all!

[Refrão]
