

Mallu Magalhães - You Know You've Got

Tom: C

You know you've got, babe
 You know you've got the rock'n'roll
 You know you're not, babe
 You're not controlled, no time to go

 You aint got no shoes,
 But you've the blues

 And that's enough to hit the road

 You know you are, babe,
 You're such a pretty girl
 You can be lost, babe
 So keep walking always,

Don't stop, just go

 You don't wear fancy brands
 But you've got friends
 Oh, that's enough to know the world
 ( G C Eb C )

 You know you've got, babe
 You've got hands, ears, nails
 You know you rock,
 You can metal strings when dancing fails
 You aint got no guns
 But you've got spurs
 ( G C Eb C )
 And that's enough to face dealers
