I know how to speak
 And I know where I'm going
 I wanted to seek
 But I got distracted
 It's a mirage
 One that leaves me embarrassed
 Because no one knows me like you
 You know there's nothing left for you
 So I continually move
 Try to pass it through for ya
 Cause I bore ya
 The past about pain
 Is timeless and honest
 So let go of your shame
 It's a dead dampened blanket
 It's a facade
 Back and look at your training

There's nobody else like you
 I think I finally explained it
 So I continue to move
 Between the bank and the blanket
 Don't fake it
 I, I'm really gonna try this time
 I'm gonna give you my heart in spite of my soul
 I, I'm really gonna try this time
 I'm gonna give you my heart in spite of my soul
 I want your name
 Burnt in my ceiling
 Floats like a flame
 An unpredictable wonder
 You gave it all hope
 That all of this is a circle
 There's nobody else like you
 So many that came before ya
 This is the moment I choose
 Between the hope and the hardest
 To be honest
 I, I'm really gonna try this time
 Gonna give you my heart in spite of my soul
 I, I'm really gonna try this time
 Gonna give you my heart in spite of my soul
