

Mandy Moore - Few Days Down

Tom: C

It's a take-out weekend
 It's a fake-out smile and pretend
 If nobody sees you cry
 You can say it was raining outside

(refrão)

And all that you want
 Is a few days down
 All that you need
 A little time to drown
 It's to be expected
 With all the weight you carry 'round

All that you want is
 A Few Days Down
 (Same as previous verse)
 It's a short vacation
 To a foreign nation
 Oh, nothing familiar here
 Just you and your lonesome heart complaining

I'm looking out
 Ten stories high
 And like a blanket lifted
 The quiet night
 The city finally waking up
 To the morning light
