Tom: E

(Oh yeah) I ain't hit you back and now you overreacting
 Hate that shit with a passion (yeah)
 Have a little self respect
 Don't want to put you on blast but you should go ahead and practice
 Shut the fuck up right now and let me breathe
 Shut the fuck up right now, let me do my thing
 Slow down, slow down, slow down
 Quit hittin' my phone up, quit hittin' my phone up, quit hittin' my phone, slow down
 I ain't hit you back, now you overreacting
 I don't play that elastic
 You be like; "when we gon' fuck?", "what we gon' do?"
 You should try and quit askin' (huh)
 You should shut the fuck up right now and let me be me (let me be, let me be)
 Shut the fuck up right now, let me do my thing (yeah)
 People talk too much shit

In my face, 'round my back, on the phone
 Ain't been famous for a while but I'm still up in my zone
 And I don't usually smoke, but I'm high on sativa
 I pour it in my tea, I smell like heaven, I'm a diva (diva)
 Bangin' Aaliyah so loud in my speaker that I can not hear you no, I'm gone
 Don't you be blowin' up my phone
 I'm in a different time zone
 Ever since a matter of time, all my girls is badder than 9
 Hope to banish the debt, you hammered, you still don't know how to handle your wine
 That's probably why you're hittin' me more
 Yeah I've got a rule because I've done this before
 Just fuck 'em 3 times and don't fuck 'em no more
 Cause they just fall in love if you fuck 'em the 4th (wooo)
 Don't get me right, I really like it when we're vibin'
 But, when I'm in another city shh, be quiet
 Shut the fuck up right now and let me breathe
 Shut the fuck up right now, let me do my thing
 Slow down, slow down, slow down
 Quit hittin' my phone up, quit hittin' my phone up, quit hittin' my phone, slow down
