

Marden - Rise Above

C tom:

In the face of the storm, I stand tall
 I won't back down, I won't fall
 With courage in my heart, I'll face the night
 Embrace the fear, I'll shine the light

Through the darkness, I'll find my way
 With every step, I'll seize the day

I've got the fire burning inside
 No more hiding, I won't subside
 I'll break the chains that held me tight
 With every breath, I'll rise, rise, rise

I'll climb the mountains, I'll cross the sea
 There's no limit to what I can be
 I'll face the trials, I'll embrace the pain
 With every challenge, I'll break the chain

Through the darkness, I'll find my way
 With every step, I'll seize the day

I've got the fire burning inside
 No more hiding, I won't subside
 I'll break the chains that held me tight
 With every breath, I'll rise, rise, rise

I'm stepping up, I'm breaking through Fear won't hold me back, I've got something to prove

With determination, I'll conquer it all
 I'm standing tall, ready to answer the call

In the streets, I'll make my mark
 No room for doubt, it's time to embark
 Courage flows through my veins
 In the face of the struggle, I'll embrace the pain

I'll rise above the doubts and the fears
 With every beat, the rhythm in my ears

I'll take the stage, I'll own the night
 With every word, I'll ignite the light
 Through the rhymes, I'll inspire and ignite
 With courage and passion, I'll reach new heights

I've got the fire burning inside
 No more hiding, I won't subside
 I'll break the chains that held me tight
 With every breath, I'll rise, rise, rise

I'll rise above, I'll take flight
 With courage as my guide, I'll shine so bright

In the face of the storm, I'll be strong
 With every challenge, I'll sing this song
 I'll rise, rise, rise
 I'll rise, rise, rise
 I'll rise, rise, rise
 I'll rise, rise, rise
