

Margaret Glaspy - Emotions And Math

Tom: G

Intro: F D7

 F D7

Oh when I got you by my side
 Everything's alright
 Its just when your gone
 I start to snooze the alarm
 Cause I stay up until 4 in the morning

[Pre-Refrão]

Counting all the days 'til you're back
 Shivering in an ice cold bath
 Of emotions and math

Oh it's a shame
 And I'm to blame
 Cause we're alright
 Until you go
 And I start losing control
 Without a warning

Counting all the days 'til you're back
 Shivering in an ice cold bath
 Of emotions and math

[Refrão]

I've gotta get outta this tree, off of this limb

I'm a woman acting like a kid

A skinny mess that's breathless from telling you

All the things that I'm gonna do

[Bridge]

I was a rolling stone
 Out on my own
 But now that you're here
 I'm just living in fear
 Of you leaving

Counting all the days 'til you're back
 Shivering in an ice cold bath
 Of emotions and math

[Refrão]

I've gotta get outta this tree, off of this limb

I'm a woman acting like a kid

A skinny mess that's breathless from telling you

All the things that I'm gonna do

[Ponte]
