

Maria Fontenelle - Valentine

Tom: C

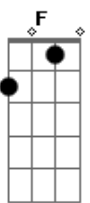

It's the month of february
 And i'm here all on my own again
 I still haven't found someone
 So i guess until then
 I'm just gonna write corny songs
 About my misery
 So before this really starts
 I'd like to ask the crowd if anyone
 Is interested in being my sweetheart
 Just for this weekend, i promise
 No commitment needed
 The odds are, though
 That i'll fall in love with you
 And if that happens, love, i swear
 You are up for a living hell, dear
 Because truth is,
 You are just my valentine
 And after february ends
 We are both going our own ways
 But, valentine,
 I am gonna miss you
 And from time to time
 I will think of you
 And no matter what we had agreed to,
 I've got just one question for you:
 Will you be my valentine next year too?
 You know me
 I'm hopeless and awkward and
 Desperate for love
 And maybe i've been watching too much friends
 So you better think twice before you
 Agree to what i ask
 Cause it's a fact
 That i get too easily attached
 And then i always end up getting hurt
 And i cry, and i cry if people leave me
 Even if they're just mates
 And that was me

Only trying to prove a point
 That if i end up with you
 I might want you to stay forever
 So don't get close if you just want a valentine
 Cause by the time you'll want to leave
 I'll grab your feet and beg you to stay
 Oh, valentine,
 I am gonna miss you
 And from time to time
 I will think of you
 And no matter what we had agreed to,
 I've got just one question for you:
 Will you be my valentine next year too?
 Now that you know all this
 I'll let you make the choice
 Do you want to be with me or not?
 I am pretty sure
 About what your answer will be
 So just leave already
 But not before i say that maybe i was wrong
 Maybe i can live alone
 And maybe be yours just for one month
 And then you can
 Walk away and live your dreams
 And i'll be just a memory
 That will fade away eventually
 Valentine,
 I am gonna miss you
 And from time to time
 I will think of you
 And no matter what we had agreed to,
 I've got just one question for you:
 Oh, valentine
 I am gonna miss you
 And from time to time
 I will think of you
 And no matter what we had agreed to,
 I've got just one question for you:
 Will you be my valentine next year too?
