

Mariah Carey - Infamous

Intro: Abm7 Db7
                                                                  Ready to stop and start again
Too live for things impossible
                                                                  Return to blissful innocence
Come dream, my carpet overflows
                                                                  Go pass the places
Right now we face
The sun rise of love
                                                                  I never show
Your body closes in on mine
                                                                  She cause a low
Wishes breaking unjustified
                                                                  I said you mean
                                                                  The world to me
Sweet hurricane of love flowing with
                                                                  Say what you are
The tide
                                                                      Α7
                                                                  It?s infamous
Gbm
Now say you mean
The world to me
                                                                  It?s such a rush
Say what you are
                                                                  Reality
(It?s Infamous)
                                                                  Abm7
                                                                  I?m so into you
It?s such a rush
Reality
                                                                  The things you do
Abm7
I?m so into you
                                                                  I know it?s dangerous
                                                                  But I believe
The things you do
                                                                  A greater love
            Gbm
I know it?s dangerous
                                                                  Than ever be
But I believe
A greater love
                                                                  I?m hoping boy
Than ever be
                                                                  So turn to be
  D7
I?m hoping boy
                                                                        Abm7
                                                                  Carry on and on and rock with me
So turn and see
                                                                  Love is a sport and we?re infamous
     Abm7
Carry on and on and rock with me
                                                                  We both call a reputation
Love is a sport and we?re infamous
                                                                  Been around since day 1
                                                                  Baby my A-1
                                                                  Know we have a little days
A, a, a, a, a, a
                                                                  But yea
                                                                  Ain?t nothing like our creation
                                                                  Carry on and on and rock with me
Rise up this moment?s drizzling boy
                                                                  Long as we?re rolling it?s infamous
Face time come back to playing and joy
                                                                  I call you bae
                                                                  So you know that mean
                                                                  It ain?t my last temptation
I know that my feelings is clouded
My champion
                                                                  But baby we can?t live without it
You would always save
                                                                  Love, no, game
                                                                  Carry on and on and rock with me
                                                                  Long as we rolling It?s infamous
The day
