

Marie Digby - Say It Agin

```
Open that door
                                                     tom:
                              C (forma dos acordes no tom de G )
Capostraste na 5º casa
                                                                                                                        And walk into my life
Intro: G D Am C
                                                                                                                        Move in a little closer
The thing about love D Am C
                                                                                                                                     G Cadd9
                                                                                                                        Take it to a whisper
Is i never saw it coming
                                                                                                                                              Am
                                                                                                                        Just a little louder
It kind of crept up
       D Am
And took me by surprise
                                                                                                                        Say it Again for me
                                                                                                                                    Am7 Am
                                                                                                                        Cause i love the way it feels
And now there's a voice inside my heart
         Am C
                                                                                                                                    G
Its got me wondering \begin{tabular}{c} \begin{ta
                                                                                                                        When you are telling me that i'm
                                                                                                                                     Am7 Am C
Is it true..? I wanna hear it one more time
                                                                                                                        The only one who blows your mind
                                                                                                                                  G D
                                                                                                                        Say it again for me
Am7 Am
Move in a little closer
G Cadd9
Take it to a whisper
                                                                                                                        It's like the whole world
                                                                                                                        Stops to listen

G D Am7 Am C
                       Am D
Just a little louder
                                                                                                                        When you tell me you're in love
               G D
                                                                                                                           G D
Say it Again for me
                                                                                                                        Say it again
         Am7 Am
                                                                                                                       Cadd9 G
And it feels like, it's the first time
Cause i love the way it feels
When you are telling me that i'm
            Am7 Am C
                                                                                                                        That anybody's ever brought the sun without the rain
The only one who blows your mind G D
                                                                                                                                               Cadd9
                                                                                                                       And never, in my whole life
Say it again for me
                                                                                                                                          Am
                Am7 Am
                                                                                                                        Have i heard words as beauiful as when you say my name
It's like the whole world
         С
Stops to listen $\sf G$ D $\sf Am7$ Am C
                                                                                                                        Say it Again for me
                                                                                                                                    Am7 Am
                                                                                                                        Cause i love the way it feels
When you tell me you're in love
           G D
Say it again
                                                                                                                        When you are telling me that i'm
                                                                                                                                    Am7 Am C
                                                                                                                        The only one who blows your mind
(GDAmC)
(GDAmC)
                                                                                                                        Say it again for me
                                                                                                                                      Am7
The thing about you
                                                                                                                        It's like the whole world
                                        Am
Is you know just how to get me
                                                                                                                        Stops to listen

G D Am7 Am C
                                                                                                                        When you tell me you're in love
You talk about us
                                                                                                                                                  D
                                                                                                                                  G
                                       Am
                                                                                                                        Say it again
Like there's no end in sight
                                                                                                                        G D Am7 Am C
                                                                                                                        Say it again
The thing about me
                                     Am C
                 D
Is that i really wanna let you
Acordes
                                                                       ukulele-chords.com
```