SR arpeggiates the chords second time around.

Legend

10b12 means bend from the tenth fret to the twelfth.
 b12 means pre-bend
 20r18 means release bend

After the second 'chorus' he whips on a capo at the third fret and plays an arpeggiated Cm7 as follows.

~ indicates vibrato.
 / means slide
 \ / means dive with whammy bar.
 p indicates pull off, and h indicates hammer on q indicates quarter tone bend.
 Intro: and Verse - Clean guitar with Chorus and Delay

He plays this repeatedly until the solo (There are various odd bits of guitar under it but I haven't bothered to work them out) somewhere that he improvised it!!

dive with bar

There are slight fills at the end of this, which are different for the two verses. They are

1 2

Then this bit which is great fun - still distorted.

The bits between verses are just Eb and F chords played as follows

This chord sequence is used until the end. Steve solos over it after a while, using the same melodic ideas as the solo, but now in Cm as opposed to Fm.
