

Marilyn Manson - Coma White

Tom: C

(intro e versos)

(continua)

(verso 1)

There's something cold and blank
Behind her smile
She's standing on an overpass
In a miracle mile
Cause you were from a perfect world
A world that threw me away today, today, today
To run away

Am

A pill to make you numb

A pill to make you dumb

G F

A pill to make you anybody else

Am C

But all the drugs in this world

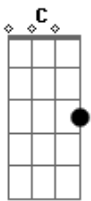

G F

won't save her from herself

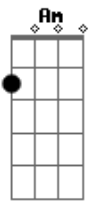

(solo)

(verso 2)

Her mouth was an empty cut
She was waiting to fall
Just bleeding like a polaroid
That lost all her dolls
Cause you were from a perfect world
A world that threw me away today, today, today
To run away

Am

A pill to make you numb

A pill to make you dumb

G F

A pill to make you anybody else

Am C

But all the drugs in this world

G F

won't save her from herself

Am

A pill to make you numb

A pill to make you dumb

G F

A pill to make you anybody else

Am C

But all the drugs in this world

G F

won't save her from herself
