Verso:

You're just another in a long line of men she screwed

Just another in a long line of men she knew

And yeah she did, yeah she did what she wanted to do

Like all the boys before

Another dream come true

It's a power, it's a power, it's a power move

And while I'm not quite sure what she's trying to prove

They all say she's got low self-esteem

So, why is she looking like a cat who got the cream?

Pré-Refrão:

But you, you can do better than
You can do better than -

Refrão:

that
I know you've been feeling sad

I've got no right to be mad,

Mad

But you can do better than that

And I know that you're not to blame

You just got caught in a game,

Game

But you can do better than -

(Riff)

Verso:

She's the apple of everybody's eye

With an angel voice

Devil in disguise

Got a sour face like a poisoned fruit

That the boys can taste 'til they're out of use

And she'll network 'til her dreams come true

Even if it means getting into bed with you

Everybody's friend, does it ring a bell?

I know a little too much but I'll never tell

Pré-Refrão:

But you, you can do better than
You can do better than -

Refrão:

that
I know you've been feeling sad

I've got no right to be mad,

Mad

But you can do better than that

And I know you've been feeling down

You're always out on the town,

Town

But you can do better than -

(Riff)

Ponte:

Well, I guess it's just what humans do
 Hook up with other people until it all falls through
 And when it's over they go out and try and heal their pain
 Hook up with another lover, do it all again
 I'm not passing judgment on her sexual life
 I'm passing judgement on the way she always stuck her knife
 In my back ever since we were starting out
 Suspicious from the start, I always had my doubts about you

Pré-Refrão:
