

Marina And The Diamonds - I'm Not Hungry Anymore

tom:

A

[Primeira Parte]

That feeling's gone
 That burning flame
 The one that tricked me time again
 That drove me wild with grit and pain
 That made me change my town and name

[Refrão]

I'm not hungry anymore
 I'm not hungry anymore

[Pré-Refrão 1]

Now I don't care what the future holds
 As long as I love and grow old
 I always thought that I would die
 If I didn't have you by my side
 But I've changed my mind
 Yeah, I've changed my mind

[Refrão]

Been feeling like myself more than ever before
 And now I don't even know what I need you for
 Been feeling like myself more than ever before
 And now I'm not hungry
 I'm not hungry for love, your love anymore
 Now I feel like myself, myself
 More than ever before

[Segunda Parte]

Connect the dots from A to B
 The cow becomes a piece of meat
 Don't even bother feeding me
 Your bullshit 'cause I'm not hungry

[Refrão]

Hungry anymore
 I'm not hungry anymore

Acordes

[Pré-Refrão 2]

That chip on my shoulder is almost gone
 And that savage desire to belong
 I always thought that I would die
 If I didn't have you by my side
 But I've changed my mind
 Yeah, I've changed my mind

[Refrão]

Been feeling like myself more than ever before
 And now I don't even know what I need you for
 Been feeling like myself more than ever before
 And now I'm not hungry
 I'm not hungry for love, your love anymore
 Now I feel like myself, myself
 More than ever before

[Ponte]

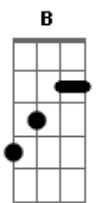

Maybe there's another road for me
 Oh, maybe I was wrong all along
 Maybe I'm not who I was trying to be
 Now that all my dreams are dead and gone
 There's no rush anymore
 Time's on my side
 All my worries are gone
 I'm enjoying the ride

[Refrão]

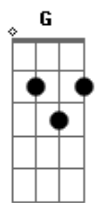

Been feeling like myself more than ever before
 And now I don't even know what I need you for
 Been feeling like myself more than ever before
 And now I'm not hungry
 I'm not hungry for love, your love anymore
 Now I feel like myself, myself
 More than ever before
 Maybe there's another road for me
 Oh, maybe I was wrong all along
