

Maroon 5 - Losing My Mind

Tom: F

( Dm7 B Am Gm7
Fm7 Am E| m7| dm7 )

Dm7 Bb
It's so hard to find you
Am Gm7
I'm standing right behind you
Fm7 Am
The streets are much colder
Am7 Dm7
This mean I'm getting older

Dm7 Bb
Why would you? How could I?
Am Gm7
These questions lead to goodbye
Fm7 Am
But now I got my freedom
Am7 Dm7
Don't I?

F Bbm
I parked my car outside your house
C7
Hope that someday you'll come home
F Bbm
Seems the woman that I love
C7
Is someone that I hardly know
F
And after all this time
Bbm C7
I finally found a way to be alone
F Bbm C7 F
I'm terrified to think that I may be losing my mind

Its keep going the same

Shy girl, so humble
With eyes that make me stumble
Somehow not speaking lets me know everything
I go out, You eat in

Hot from the situation
You're naked in daylight
Wrap yourself up and goodnight

I'm burning, I'm hungry
Angry cuz she don't love me
You got me completely
In my own game you beat me

I parked my car outside your house
Hope that someday you'll come home
Seems the woman that I love
Is someone that I hardly know
And after all this time
I finally found a way to be alone
I'm terrified I think that I may be losing my mind

F
I will be back again
Dm
No this is not the end
Am F
I've fallen hard this time but I not giving in
F Dm Dm
I want the world to know that I won't let you forget
Am
The tears that you shed
I'll make it impossible to let go

I parked my car outside your house
Hope that someday you'll come home
Seems the woman that I love
Is someone that I hardly know
And after all this time
I finally found a way to be alone
I'm terrified to think that I may be losing my mind

I parked my car outside your house
Hope that someday you'll come home
Seems the woman that I love
Is someone that I hardly know
And after all this time
I finally found a place to be alone
I'm terrified to think that I may be losing my mind
