Released on May 14th 2007

Do you remember me
 I'm that chick you danced with two times
 Through the Rufus album Friday night at that party
 I never knew A
 Where your skinhead friend passed out
 For several hours on the bathroom floor
 And you told me
 You weren't that drunk
 And that I was your favourite Salsa dancer
 You had ever come across in New York City

Eugene
 Eugene
 Eugene
 I said hello, Eugene
 Are you there, Eugene

Then we kissed
 Once we lobbed your friend into the elevator
 I went to write my number on a soggy paper towel
 And the car went down
 And when we were finished making out
 We noticed that your skinhead friend was gone
 Long gone
 And you looked into my bloodshot eyes
 And said "is it too soon if I call you Sunday"

Eugene
