Tom: D
  Intro: Bm7 D E7 Bm7 A Gb7 Bm7 F7 E7
I'm feelin' mighty lonesome, haven't slept a wink
                  G
                               Α
I walk the floor and watch the door, in between I drink
                       A Bb A Gb7
   D Dm Dm
Black coffee love's a hand-me-down broom
   Bm7
           D E7
                       Bm7 A Gb7 Bm7 F7 E7
I'll never know a Sunday in this weekday room
A G A Bb
I'm talkin to the shadow one o'clock till four
And Lord, how slow the moments go when all I do is pour
   D Dm
               Dm
                              A Bb A Gb7
Black coffee
             since the blues caught my eye
               D E7
                            Bm7

I'm hangin' out on Monday my Sunday dreams to dry
                Bridge:
               Bb Dm
                Now man is born to come alovin'
                    Dm
                                   Dm7 Gdim A
                And a woman's born to weep and fret
                 F7
                To stay at home and tend her oven
                                                    Fdim E7
                    F7 Gdim F7 E7
                And drown her past regrets in coffee and cigarettes
                                  G
                                        Α
                I'm moonin' all the mornin', moanin' all the night
                                G
                                         Α
                And in between it's nicotine and not much heart to fight
                D Dm Dm A Bb A
Black coffee feelin' low as the ground
                            G7 Gb7
                   Db7
                                        D Bm7
                It's drivin' me crazy, this waitin' for my baby
A Ab7 G7 Gb7 F7 Fdim E7 Bm7 A Gb7 Bm7 E7 Fdim A Gb7 Bm7 F7 E7 A
                                               'til he come around
                'Til he come around,
