

Matt Corby - Wrong Man

Tom: Bb
  Bb7M
                                     D
You know you're talking to the wrong man, my friend
                        Bb7M
I'm still on the fence, wasting time in future tense
                                 Bb7M
                           Am
And all I came here for was finding love
To help me understand my own
       Am
It's un- defendable
And now you want to tell me you're devo- ted
                     Bb7M
When all the while you told me you don't know
And now you want to come and sell me what I already own
And now you're trying to teach me what I already know
You know you're talking to the wrong man, my friend
When they bleed you out I won't blame you now
                                  Bb7M
                            Am
And all I came here for was finding love
To help me understand my loss
            Am
Right, wrong, or legal
And all the greatest hands that I would hold in mine
                       Bb7M F D
All the times I had to let them go
                                                       Bb7M
And now they want to come and sell you what you already own
And now they're trying to teach you what you already know
You know you're talking to the wrong man, my friend

I'll still make amends, gaining time in present tense
                            Am
And all I came here for was finding love
To help me understand my own
                 Bb7M F D Am Bb7M F
And re- define it, oh
n
So the air I'll breathe in to drown in the sea
I've been beat up and did you know
You said you'd know
I get a little bit chewed up
I wouldn't if I had known
    Bb7M
And seeing some part of you hopeful
I know and I know you don't, see
I've been dizzy falling down degrees
I know you won't count on me
And the truth never bothers me
I know and I know you don't
Celebrated for your time awake
                                     Bb7M F D Am Bb7M F D Am
Bb7M F D Am Bb7M
I know you won't be sleeping now, oh
                             F
You know you're talking to the wrong man, my friend
                       Bb7M
I'll still make amends, gaining time in present tense
                                  Bb7M
And all I came here for was finding love
To help me understand my own
And redefine it, oh
