Matt Maeson - Grave Digger

```
Gbm A
                                                         But tell me if I run away
                         tom:
              G
                                                                      Gbm A D
                                                         How long will I bleed?
          Gbm
               Α
                                D
                                  Gbm
                                                                      Gbm A
                                                                                D
                                                         So tell me if I run away
I can't run to you, father
  A D A
                                                         Gbm A D Gbm
How long will I bleed?
I need love
Gbm
      Α
                       D
I can't talk to you, mother
                                                         Gbm
Gbm A D
                                                         Ain't no point in tryna picking me up
I know it's got you caught up
                                                          D
                                                         When I'm down
          F
                                                                    Gbm
                         D
But your sweet sinless sensation
                                                         Yeah, you can stick out your hand
Is not my style
     Gbm A
                                                                     D
                                                         And you can lean towards the ground
                                                         Gbm
                                                         I'll be tryna suck all of the liquid out the dirt
And I'm not giving up
                                                         D
                                                         Tryna catch a curve, digging my own grave
              Gbm A
                     D
But tell me if I run away
                                                          A D
             Gbm A D
                                                         Ooh mama
How long will I bleed?
                                                         Gbm
                                                                                     Α
             Gbm A
                                                         I'll be tryna suck the liquid out the dirt
                      D
So tell me if I run away
                                                         D
                                                                                           Gbm
             Gbm A D Gbm
                                                         Tryna catch a curve, digging my own grave
How long will I bleed?
                                                          A D
                                                         Ooh mama
A D
           Gbm
Colors blend
                                                                   Е
                                                                                  D
                                                         But your sweet sinless sensation
                       D
    Α
They're all black and white
                                                             Gbm A
GbmADGod damn it, I can not bend
                                                         Is not my style
                                                            Е
                                                                         D
                                                         And I'm not giving up
Gbm A D
I'm all shriveled inside
                                                                       Gbm A
                                                                                D
          Е
                         D
                                                         But tell me if I run away
But your sweet sinless sensation
                                                                      Gbm A D
    Gbm A
                                                         How long will I bleed?
Is not my style
                                                                      Gbm A
                                                                               D
                D
                                                         So tell me if I run away
    F
And I'm not giving up
                                                                      Gbm A D
                                                         How long will I bleed?
```

Acordes

