

Matt Maher - What a Friend

Tom: E

Ohh ohh ohh ohh

Everybody has trials and temptations
Ohh ohh
Everybody knows heart break isolation
Ohh ohh
But we can lay our burdens down
Lay our burdens down

What a friend we have in jesus
East to west my sins are gone
I see grace on every horizon
And forever and ever his heart is my Home

Ohh ohh
Ohh ohh

Everybody has fears, everybody got worries
Ohh ohh
Everybody knows sorrow, devastation
Ohh ohh
But we can lay our burdens down
Lay our burdens down

What a friend we have in jesus

East to west my sins are gone
I see grace on every horizon
And forever and ever his heart is my
Home
(Dbm B)

No more betrayal
For he is faithful
He fills me up and my cup runneth over

No more betrayal
For he is faithful
How he has proven it over and over
No more betrayal

What a friend we have in jesus
East to west my sins are gone
I see grace on every horizon
And forever and ever his heart is my
Home

What a friend we have in jesus
East to west my sins are gone
I see grace on every horizon
And forever and ever his heart is my
Home

Forever and ever his heart is my
Home
