

Matuê - Tropical Island Honey

You're the reason why tom: Always in a rush Her daily mind she keeps sober, yeah Got no time for touch And on her thoughts, yeah, they keep on fighting But the only thing she lacks is love To bring up a fighting chance for more Seems so far away Yes, it looks so far away Relies on no one but herself She's full of spells Waving goodbyes and farewells She puts me on one and I felt Beginning to swell under the sheets and hotels So love, we swear by See until I Bare in the sky Beautiful lights Love is divine Miracle like Got me feeling so right I wanna feel your love Come on, feel the light Come on, little girl, let me show you how we gon' do it right My life is so much better, girl, and you're the reason why I've been really tryna tell you, girl, yeah, you're the reason You're the reason why

She still on the run And it just makes her feel lower, yeah But soon time will come And destiny will show just what it's hurtin' But the only thing she needs is touch To bring up a fighting chance for more She waits it everyday For love to come her way She can't wait to go back to the sea Where she wants to be Feeling the good sunny breeze My tropical island honey Just wanted to flee And get away from the city So love, we swear by See until I Bare in the sky Beautiful lights Love is divine Miracle like Got me feeling so right I wanna feel your love Come on, feel the light Come on, little girl, let me show you how we gon' do it right My life is so much better, girl, and you're the reason why I've been really tryna tell you, girl, yeah, you're the reason You're the reason why
