Maya Hawke - Coverage

```
You can't pick it from the truth \frac{Bm}{Bm} \begin{array}{c} A \\ G \end{array} It's been of tremendous use tom:
                                        Am
Intro:
                                                                                                                                                               [Refrão]
[Primeira Parte]
                                                                                                                                                              D
                                                                                                                                                                                         Α
                                                                                                                                                                                                       G
                                                                                                                                                              If I were really here
Here is light in little rooms
D C
                                                                                                                                                              D
                                                                                                                                                              Looking at you beamin'
Water colors, camera moves
                                                                                                                                                              D A G
                                                                                                                                                              If I were really alive, could I
Α
                                   G
Fooling you into the myth
                                                                                                                                                              D
                                                                                                                                                                                                      Α
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     Bm
                                                                                                                                                              Make it through every day dreamin'?
D
                                     C
Even my little?laugh's?a wish
                                                                                                                                                              N.c
                                                                                                                                                              Dreamin'
[Pré-Refrão]
                                                                                                                                                               ( A G D C )
( A G D C )
Bm
                        Α
Growing up?a memory
                                                                                                                                                               [Pré-Refrão]
Bm A
Becoming who I used to?be
Bm A D
                                                                                                                                                                                       Α
                                                                                                                                                              Bm
                                                                                                                                                                                                               D
Cover me, uncover you
                                                                                                                                                              Growing up?a memory
                                                                                                                                                                                       Α
Bm
                                                                                                                                                               Bm
                            Α
                                                                                                                                                              Becoming who I used to?be
Bm A D
Is that really what I'd do?
[Refrão]
                                                                                                                                                              Cover me, uncover you
                                                                                                                                                              Bm A
                                                                                                                                                                                                                             G
                                                                                                                                                              Is that really what I'd do?
                       Α
If I were really here
                                                                                                                                                               [Refrão]
Looking at you beamin'
D A G
If I were really alive, could I
D A Bm
                                                                                                                                                              D
                                                                                                                                                                                         Α
                                                                                                                                                                                                         G
                                                                                                                                                              If I were really here
                                                                                                                                                                                         G
Make it through every day dreamin'?
                                                                                                                                                              Looking at you beamin'
                                                                                                                                                              D
                                                                                                                                                                                   Α
                                                                                                                                                                                                   G
                                                                                                                                                               If I were really alive, could I
[Segunda Parte]
                                                                                                                                                                                                      Α
                                                                                                                                                              Make it through every day dreamin'?
                                       G
I told you it's gums and teeth
                                                                                                                                                              D
                                                                                                                                                                                                     G
                                                                                                                                                                                    Α
                                                                                                                                                              If I were really here
There's nothing moving underneath
                                                                                                                                                               D
                                                                                                                                                              Looking at you beamin'
                                                           G
A Grant States and Sta
                                                                                                                                                              D
                                                                                                                                                                      A G
                                                                                                                                                              If I were really alive, could I
With blush or blues or lights or grace
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      Bm
                                                                                                                                                              D
                                                                                                                                                                                                        Α
                                                                                                                                                              Make it through every day dreamin'?
[Pré-Refrão]
                                                                                                                                                               [Final]
Bm
                                                       D
Here is where I put my trust
Bm A D
                                                                                                                                                              Dreamin'
                                                                                                                                                                      Em
If you tell a lie enough
Bm A
                                                                                                                                                              Dreamin'
                                                                 D
Acordes
```

Oferecimento Lojalele.com.br