Tom: C
Intro: first vers

second vers

Again the dark has come...like all the empty nights the smells of burnig dow...put the end of lights the wind of deep inside...the rain of cloudy sky the scream of scared wild...make all the painful die

And i'm alive again...alone under the rain my head is full of pain...not like the other man and my disteny is vague...i have nothing to take and my life will soon be break...like no others
