                                                                    Baby's coming back
                                                                    So I'm on my best behavior
I knew that when I saw her
That my life would soon move over from the fast lane
                                                                    I can't take it anymore
Gone would be the days of all my drinkin and my carrying on
But when I settled down
                                                                    I just woke up on the floor today (Yeah, Yeah)
The party king uncrowned
This stubborn memory hadn't faded
                                                                    I've long run out of my last chances but she's on her way
Too many dumb mistakes
And all the grief it makes
Left nothing else to be debated
                                                                    What I told her on the telephone was that I'd been so bad
                                                                 C I wouldn't blame her if she mowed down these wild oats I'd
But if you say that you understand then you're lyin'
                         Dm
                                                                                      Db

But if you figure that I'm alright now I can't deny it
                                                                           Eb Eb Eb

                                                                    N.C

Baby's coming back
So I'm on my best behavior
                                                                    Baby's coming back
I can't take it anymore
                                                                    Baby's coming back

If I had a dollar for every single time I fought her
I'd buy a handgun
But that couldn't shoot away
