He said he saw you last night making out by the lake
                                                               (G)
(D)
                                                                         (C)
With a boy that he hates doesn't loook at me the same way that And we're better off when Daddy's outta town
                                                                      (C)

Seen the star on \ensuremath{\mathsf{my}} foot and the way I behave
                                                                      (C)
          (G)
                       (D)
And we're better off if we moved outta town
                                                                         (C)
        (C)
                            (G)
Oh Baby you, got nothin to prove
                                                               (G)
                  (G)
                                    (C)
       (C)
But if we decide to go it doesn't mean he's gotta know
                                                               (G)
       (C)
                            (G)
Oh baby you, got nothin to lose
                                                               (D)
          (C)
                            (D)
And we're better off when Daddys not around
                                                                         (D)
