She was broken on the floor

Foolish to let misery let it fall apart in autumn
C
Driving on a one way street

Now you turn to get back to me

Running close to empty, but I'll
Am D
I'll never say goodbye

I'll never say (I'll never say)
I'll never say (I'll never say)

And now I'm running in circles

Feels like I'm losing my mind

And I'm trying to get off

Going down this lonely road
Am G
Hoping to see her again

'Cause I keep seeing in reflections

Flashes in every mirror

Kissing her when I'm alone

Making love until the dawn

Now that every night I know

Can't live without her
