

McFly - Forever's Not Enough

God gave us rock and roll so I could feel your soul and find tom:
Intro: E Dbm A B
       E Dbm A B
                                                                Way back home
[Primeira Parte]
                                                                [Pré-Refrão]
All of the Saturdays you walked out
                                                                We get through the hardest times
Through the rain and made the
                                                                'Cause we feel so electric when we work things out
Train for me
                                                                So let the summer rain fall down
My engine running in your driveway, didn't care, I didn't want Anything is possible with you around [Refrão]
Leave
Listening to KISS and sharing
                                                                Once more for us
Headphones in the dark looking for
                                                                Once more no giving up
Dbm
Satellites
                                                                We know tonight is all we're ever living for В
Smoking and drinking like we're grown up
                                                                We never wanna stop
Now we're grown up we
                                                                Forever's not enough
Can dance all night
                                                                So come on once more for us
                                                                       Gbm
                                                                'Cause tonight is all I'm ever living for [Pré-Refrão]
                                                                        В
                                                                I never wanna stop
'Cause I know love is hard sometimes
                                                                Forever's not enough
                      Dhm
Hearts they roll like thunder when they hit the ground
          Dbm
                                                                ( A E B )
                                                                ( A E B )
( A E B )
So let the summer rain fall down
Anything is possible with you around
                                                                ( A E )
                                                                ( A B A B )
[Refrão]
                                                                [Refrão]
Once more for us
                                                                Once more for us
Once more no giving up
                                                                Once more no giving up
We know tonight is all we're ever living for
                                                                We know tonight is all we're ever living for
        В
We never wanna stop
                                                                We never wanna stop
Forever's not enough
                                                                Forever's not enough
[Segunda Parte]
                                                                                Dbm
                                                                So come on once more baby
We nearly lost each other running round the world following
                                                                'Cause tonight is all I'm ever living for Different dreams
                                                                       В
                                                                I never wanna stop
Waiting for hours just to see you for a second on a lonely
                                                                Forever's not enough
Watching the sky without you I was lost but somehow I knew
                                                                [Final] A E B
To go
