

McFly - Here Comes The Storm

```
Tom: Gb
                                                              I can't believe that we lost our magic And if I leave then you
(acordes na forma do tom F )
                                                              cause the
Capostraste na 1ª casa
                                                               F storm
You said you wanted love, so I gave it, I said I wanted trust
            Bb C
                                                              What can I do from across the Atlantic
But I did no wrong, does he turn you on?
                                                                            Bb
                                                              How would you feel when I'm gone gone?
   Dm
                                             Dm
You went and did the things that betrayed us and if I did the
                                                                             C Gm
                                                              Here comes the storm, Here comes the storm, baby
                 Bb C
                                                                          C
And if that were real? How would that feel?
                                                              What can I do from across the Atlantic
                                                                            Bb
Pré-Refrão:
                                                              How would you feel when I'm gone gone gone?
 I can't lie, I'm tired of you treating me so-oh cold
                                                              You said you wanted love, and I gave it, I said I wanted trust
                           Bb
                                        C
Tonight I'm done Either you stay or you go go go
                                                                            Bb C
                                                              But I did no wrong, does he turn you on?
Refrão:
                                                              You went and did the things that betrayed us and if I did the
I can't believe that we lost our magic And if I leave then you
                                                                               Bb C
                                                              And if that were real? How would that feel?
                                                              Pré-Refrão:
storm
                                                                                  Gm
                                                                                          Bh
What can I do from across the Atlantic
                                                               I can't lie, I'm tired of you treating me so-oh cold
              Bb
                       С
                                                                         Gm
                                                                                          Bb
How would you feel when I'm gone gone?
                                                              Tonight I'm done Either you stay or you go go go
                                                              Refrão:
I know I've done some things I'm not perfect You know the way
                                                                       C
                                                              I can't believe that we lost our magic And if I leave then you
And I play your game We're not the same
Walking away from this And I'm thinking What if I don't go
                                                              What can I do from across the Atlantic
Would that be so wrong? And here comes the storm
                                                                            Bh
                                                                                       C
                                                              How would you feel when I'm gone gone gone?
Pré-Refrão:
                    Gm
                            Bb
                                                                                    Gm
 I can't lie, I'm tired of you treating me so-oh cold
                                                              Here comes the storm, Here comes the storm, baby
                            Bb
           Gm
                                       C
                                                                                               Gm
Tonight I'm done Either you stay or you go go
                                                              What can I do from across the Atlantic
                                                                            Bb
                                                              How would you feel when I'm gone gone gone?
Refrão:
                                                 Bb
                                 Gm
Acordes
```

