

McFly - Only The Strong Survive

Tom: A

Afinação: Db Gb Cb E G Db

Intro:

Verso 1:
 The worst is over
 And the sky is clear
 And there's not a place on Earth I'd rather be than here
 But on the horizon
 As the morning breaks

I can see a brand new day that's full of new mistakes

Refrão:

They tell me that only the strong survive
 I don't know if I'll make it through the night
 I guess I'll see you in the afterlife
 They tell me that only the strong survive

Verso 2:
 Gotta keep on running
 Stay on the attack

'Cause the day you quit's the day you wish you had it back

Refrão:

They tell me that only the strong survive
 I don't know if I'll make it through the night
 I guess I'll see you in the afterlife
 They tell me that only the strong survive

Ponte:

If we're gonna die tomorrow

Dbm
 At least we can say
 Life has been alright
 Yeah it's been alright

Gbm
 We can beg and we can borrow
 Dbm
 But in the end
 Everything's alright
 Everything's alright, alright
 Guitar 3:

Everytime we get up we'll be destined to fall
 And I'm asking myself, is it worth this at all?
 Every corner we turn we just run into walls
 Because loving you feel's like a kick in your balls

Everytime we get up we'll be destined to fall (destined to fall)
 And I'm asking myself, is it worth this at all? (worth this at all)
 Every corner we turn we just run into walls
 Because loving you feel's like a kick in your balls

Refrão:

They tell me that only the strong survive
 I don't know if I'll make it through the night
 I guess I'll see you in the afterlife
 They tell me that only the strong survive
