

Melanie Martinez - Bones Are Blue

Tom: A

m C
The air I breath is the same as you
Am
And I'd like to know if that's true
E
Your heart and mind controlling you
G
Or is it the fact that your bone's are blue?
C
And why is your face so pale?
Am
You say my name your lungs exhale
E
You sigh in regret to what we had
G Em
I didn't know I made you so mad

C Am
Why are you
E G
Afraid of me for being interesting?
C Am
I'm confused
E G Em
By things you say why are you so vague?
C Am
Don't tell me who to be
E
I'm not like you
G
But your just like me
Em C
Quit making a fool
Am
Who the hell are you?
E G Em
Your bones are blue too

C
Now look at you
Am
You're grin so big
E
When you saw me fall off that cliff
G
This smile melts off when I look at you
Em
Your glammed up but your bones are blue

C
I've tried and tried to prove your wrong
Am
I know you feel that in this song
E
G
I'm looking through that diamond skin and all I see is an evil grin
C Am
Why are you
E G
Afraid of me for being interesting?
C Am
I'm, confused
E G Em
By the things you say why are you so vague?
C Am
Don't tell me who to be
E
I'm not like you

But you just like me
Em C

Who the hell are you?
