

Melanie Martinez - Dead To Me

Tom: C

My condolences
 I shed a tear with your family
 I'll open a bottle up
 Pour a little bit out in your memory
 I'll be at the wake dressed in all black
 I'll call out your name but you won't call back
 I'll hand a flower to your mother when I say goodbye
 'Cause baby you're dead to me
 I need to kill you
 That's the only way to get you out my head
 Oh I need to kill you
 To silence all the sweet little things you said
 I really want to kill you
 Wipe you off the face of my earth
 And bury your bracelet, bury your bracelet
 Six feet under the dirt
 Rainy days and black umbrellas
 Who's gonna save you now
 Can you cheat from underground
 My condolences
 I shed a tear with your family
 I'll open a bottle up
 Pour a little bit out in your memory
 I'll be at the wake dressed in all black

I'll call out your name but you won't call back
 I'll hand a flower to your mother when I say goodbye
 'Cause baby you're dead to me
 I'll mourn when you go
 Baby your dead to me
 I'll mourn you when you go
 I need to say a "Sorry"
 That's the only thing you say when you lose someone
 I used to say I'm sorry
 For all of the stupid sh t you've done
 So now I'm really sorry
 Sorry for being the apologetic one
 But if I told you again, if I told you again
 You would think I was crazy
 My condolences
 I shed a tear with your family
 I'll open a bottle up
 Pour a little bit out in your memory
 I'll be at the wake dressed in all black
 I'll call out your name but you won't call back
 I'll hand a flower to your mother when I say goodbye
 'Cause baby you're dead to me
 I'll mourn you when you go
 Baby your dead to me
 I'll mourn you when you go
 'Cause baby your dead to me
