

Memi - Bitter Heart

Tom: G

Suddenly you look like a stranger
 A phase I knew, but I must've forgotten
 Emotional flicker, you were my everything
 We know we could've done it better
 Fought for the little things that we wanted
 I know we were so good together
 Still, you had to let go
 Oh, I wish that you hadn't pulled the trigger
 Shot me down with my bitter heart
 My blood is getting thicker
 You shot me down, you shot me down
 With my bitter heart
 You swam so deep into my river
 Your footsteps lead everywhere I go
 I never was a weeper
 But I'm still holding on
 We know we could've done it better
 Fought for the little things that we wanted
 I know we were so good together
 Still, you had to let go
 Oh, I wish that you hadn't pulled the trigger

Shot me down with my bitter heart
 My blood is getting thicker
 Oh, you shot me down, you shot me down...
 Oh, I wish that you hadn't pulled the trigger
 Shot me down with my bitter heart
 My blood is getting thicker
 Oh, you shot me down, you shot me down
 My bitter heart
 Ooooooh, ooooooh, ooooooh
 Oh baby, look at me just one more time
 Tell me that you don't regret it
 I really thought we were fine (toque único seguido de pausa)
 Then you shot me down
 Oh, I wish that you hadn't pulled the trigger
 Shot me down with my bitter heart
 My blood is getting thicker
 You shot me down, you shot me down
 Oh, I wish that you hadn't pulled the trigger
 Shot me down with my bitter heart
 My blood is getting thicker
 You shot me down
 You shot me down
 With my bitter heart
