

Men At Work - Touching the Untouchables

Tom: E
Intro: .: Dbm B A Abm X3 Dbm B A Abm Gb

(Dbm)
Hello to you, my sweet young friends
Have you got money perhaps you could lend?
I wash my leather face in the afternoon sun
My shirt's turn my time's near done
E Gb
A B
Touching the untouchables but they don't know
Dbm B
Respect the disrespectables, but in the end you know
A Gb
You turn away, what can I say?

(Dbm)
Spend my nights in the telephone booth
I make sure I leave the phone off the hook
There are no Jones' and I pay no rent
I have to stand straight because my back's so bent
E Gb
A B
Tell my secretary I ain't takin' any calls,

And if you want to find me, just ask the boys...

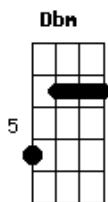

Dbm
Down at the wall...That's where I'll be...
(repete INTRO)
Oh...
Oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh

(Dbm)
Park bench and cigarettes
Can you help me get off this fence?
Can't you see, I'm just an old man
Tryin' hard, do what I can
E Gb
A B
Touching the untouchables but they don't know
Dbm B
Respect the disrespectables, but in the end you know
A Gb
You turn away, what can I say?
Gb A
You'll never, never know
B
You'll never know
