

Mercy Bell - Icarus

tom:

Intro: C G D C
 Oh my winter wings don't fail me now
 I've been crashing into sunsets, falling to the ground
 Well I moved to the city, with a dollar to my name
 With holes in both my shoes, and a pocket full of uh-oh honey
 (C G D)

[Refrão]

Maybe I'm the fool, the one who steals the sunlight
 Maybe I'm the chord, who'll rhapsodize your sunrise
 Maybe I'm an Icarus, a heap out on the highway singing
 Oh, oh-oh, oh-oh
 I'm singing oh, oh-oh, oh-oh

[Segunda Parte]

Wake up in the morning, on the search for grace
 Walk the bars find a random stranger with a kind enough face
 I suppose that I would call you, just to hear you say hello
 But for all the life I've left untold, couldn't buy time on a

Telephone

[Refrão]

Maybe I'm the fool, the one who steals the sunlight
 Maybe I'm the chord, who'll rhapsodize your sunrise
 Maybe I'm an Icarus, a heap out on the highway singing
 Oh, oh-oh, oh-oh
 I'm singing Oh, oh-oh, oh-oh

[Ponte]

An inch above the breakdown
 An inch below the high
 If you find you Eden lacking
 Do you stay or do you ride?

[Refrão]

Maybe I'm the fool, the one who steals the sunlight
 Maybe I'm the chord, who'll rhapsodize your sunrise
 Maybe I'm an Icarus, a heap out on the highway singing
 Oh, oh-oh, oh-oh
 I'm singing oh, oh-oh, oh-oh
 I'm singing oh, oh-oh, oh-oh
