[Primeira Parte]
                                                                  [Segunda Parte]

Not everyone can be like me and Michael

                                                                  Binary star sink like the setting sun
The only problem is forgetting which side you're on
So you think the burning light will reappear on summer nights
                                                                  Too happy with ourselves to notice when the change had come
Bm E A
Like all the rest, but they can't find out
                                                                  So you think the losing side would never break dividing lines
                                                                   Bm E
D E Dbm D
In every scene, it's me and Michael
                                                                  When sanctity wasn't a thing of doubt
                                                                  [Refrão]
Imaginary bombs raining down from the clouds
                                                                  Me and Michael Solid as they come

Bm E E E E A A A
So it seems the danger signs will never let the feelings die
When all the best and brightest have gone
                                                                  Me and Michael
                                                                                    It's not a question now
                                                                  [Refrão]
